Payment method to sign up as a featured artist:

Please use the yellow button on our call for artists page online and use the cart checkout feature. After the payment is received by us, you will be considered a featured artist in this event. If you never exhibited with us before, please also send a URL to your website, or examples of your work attached.

Sales:

You keep 100% of all your sales and must be present throughout the event to process those sales. Call us to take a photo of you with any client and the respective sold piece(s) for promotional purposes for you, your art and our event.

Deadline to sign up:

The space is limited and we're accepting guest artists on a first come first serve basis. The show may fill up at any given time so register as soon as you can.

ART HANGING DATE: Wednesday 4th of December at 6-8pm.

There will be no other chance to hang so make sure you can make it or have someone to hang your artwork for you. All wall pieces must be wired on the back or they may not hang on our grids or hanging system. You are advised to insure your work. JoMar Visions will not be responsible for any artwork before, during or after the event.

Take Down Date: day of the show after all guests are gone. Do not take down until curator or gallery owner gives green light to do so.

Food and Drinks:

Each artist brings a little something for the food table or the bar, to serve to our guests. JoMar Visions will provide drinks, bartender and paper and plastic disposables.
